

Announcement of the Faculty of International Studies

Subject: Regulations for supporting the fee for the English Proficiency Test (TOEIC) for students

---

As the faculty of International Studies offers a Bachelor of Arts (International Program) in International Business: China Program, Chinese Studies Program, Thai Studies Program, International Studies Program, European Studies: English-French Program, International Business: China, and International Studies, the students are required to take the English proficiency test (TOEIC), and the faculty supports the test fee for first-, second-, and third-year students. In order to ensure the effective management of the faculty, the regulations for supporting the fee for the English Proficiency Test (TOEIC) for students are set. In the event that the second-year students fail to take the test, the faculty reserves the right not to support the test fee in the following year, except in cases of force majeure, such as hospital admission, for which the student must present a medical certificate to the faculty within seven days from the test date.

This announcement is effective on 1 December, 2022

The announcement was made on 13 December, 2022

(Associate Professor Pun, Thongchumnum, Ph.D.)

Vice President for Phuket Campus

Acting Dean of the Faculty of International Studies